You're Not Special
1 Samuel 16:1-13

1. The 'Only' Choice isn't Usually God's Choice

If opportunity is found before character is formed, disaster is inevitable.

If I won't do it, God will find someone who will, and I will miss the blessing –

The irony is that while we need God desperately but rarely seem to want Him, He wants us even though He doesn't need us at all.

2. The Obvious Choice isn't Usually God's Choice

God doesn't measure the measurable,
He measures the immeasurable.

3. The Reasonable Choice isn't Necessarily God's Choice

God loves to take the 'wrong' people and do something great.

4. Humble hearts + Open Hands are Always God's Choice

God is awesome; He doesn't need you to be awesome. He wants you to be obedient.

Everyone wants to be king, almost no one wants to be a faithful shepherd boy.

I'm not special. I know someone special.
